Notes to Contributors

In general, papers in any of the following three categories will be considered for publication in the Journal of the Philosophy of Sport:

1. Articles containing detailed and discrete treatments of topics which are pertinent to the philosophy of sport (a term herein utilized broadly to incorporate sport, games, play, dance, and other related human movement endeavors);
2. Philosophic discussions, synthesis statements, and critical notes which address concepts and issues previously discussed in the Journal, and elsewhere, in attempts to provide further illumination through discourse, debate, and criticism; and
3. Critical reviews of current and classic works and literature within the general areas of the philosophical or sociocultural analysis of sport.

Instructions to Contributors

1. Direct all editorial correspondence and/or submissions to:

   Dr. Klaus V. Meier, Editor
   Journal of the Philosophy of Sport
   Thames Hall
   The University of Western Ontario
   London, Ont., N6A 3K7, Canada
2. Four non-returnable copies of each manuscript must be submitted to the editor.
3. The review process is 'blind'; therefore, the author's name and institutional affiliation should appear only on the cover page.
4. Manuscripts should conform to the reference, footnote, and bibliographical style utilized in current volumes of the Journal. Manuscripts employing alternative formats will be accepted for review; however, acceptance for publication will depend upon appropriate stylistic revisions to be conducted by the author(s) before publication.
5. Two copies of the final copy of all accepted papers, as well as a copy of the word processor disk from which they were derived, are required before publication.

Business Correspondence

Address all business correspondence relating to the Journal of the Philosophy of Sport, including requests for current and previous copies, to Human Kinetics Publishers, Inc., Box 5076, Champaign, IL 61825-5076.
